STUNNING LED HEADLIGHTS

An LED switched AHS (Adaptive High-beam System) helps provide excellent visibility. The system uses a monocular camera sensor located on top of the vehicle to detect light from vehicles in front and automatically optimizes the headlamp light distribution so the high beams do not directly illuminate preceding or oncoming vehicles.

AERODYNAMIC DESIGN

Besides giving the UX its distinctive rear profile, aero stabilizing blades help regulate airflow and enhance stability during lane changes and crosswinds. The “aero light blade” extensions have been blackened, creating a sporty and elegant design.

MOON ROOF

The forward placement of the moon roof lets in an abundance of light, enhancing the open and airy feeling in the cabin. Its structure and shape were refined to help reduce wind noise when it is open.
